A. The Chief Officer for Academic Affairs ensures the integrity and effectiveness of the College's instructional offerings. The position supervises the planning, organizing, and implementation of the instructional and instructional support activities necessary for the delivery of quality programs.

B. The Chief Officer for Economic and Workforce Development ensures the integrity and effectiveness of the College’s continuing education programs for economic and workforce development. The position is responsible for defining, coordinating, and monitoring local economic and workforce development initiatives.

C. The Chief Officer for Finance, Operations, and Facilities provides administrative direction for the college's financial, physical plant, and auxiliary services including the planning, development, implementation, organization, and monitoring of financial and operational programs, policies, and procedures. The position provides administrative direction for planning, designing, and coordinating the construction of physical facilities and projects.

D. The Chief Officer for Student Services ensures integrity and effectiveness of student services in support of the academic, social, and developmental lives of students. The position provides leadership, expertise and administrative direction in the areas of admissions, records and registration, counseling, financial aid, persistence and retention, student activities and student discipline.