A. In the event of inclement weather, natural disaster, emergencies, or other similar situations which the President deems of sufficient impact to warrant closing the College, some College employees may be required to report for work at the discretion of the President. Non-exempt employees will receive one and one-half hours of compensatory time for each hour worked during the College closure. Security employees will be required to report during their normal work hours and will not receive compensatory time off during College closing.

B. Curriculum or continuing education courses which are not held due to reasons noted above must be rescheduled or the instruction must be made up in some alternate manner as determined by the Chief Academic Officer.
