The Board authorizes adult education or community service courses when there is apparent need for them in the community, when the courses are primarily educational, when qualified instructors and funds are available, and when a minimum of ten (10) students are likely to enroll. Under unusual circumstances (e.g., acute community need, initiation of a new program) some latitude in class size will be allowed. A course may be discontinued when it ceases to meet these criteria.